Policy and Procedure Document for Promotion / Continuation of Service of Temporary Teaching Staff

This policy document prepared, time to time revised and accordingly implemented in consultation with, and under approval of, the Governing Council, Lyallpur Khalsa College, Jalandhar, deals with Promotion / Continuation of Service of Temporary Teaching Staff. The directive points of the documents are:

1. Each teacher working against a temporary post shall submit a self appraisal form to the IQAC by the end of the academic session. The document will enlist his/her academic, co-curricular, administrative and extension activities and achievements.
2. The form shall be scrutinized and verified in its contents, and recommended accordingly by the IQAC following which it will be forwarded to the Principal for grading and approval.
3. The Principal will approve promotion/ continuity of service to the teacher on his/ her overall assessment in addition to the teacher's work and conduct during the session.
4. A teacher having earned PhD degree in the session shall be given financial benefit of Rs. 1000/- per month for the year
5. A teacher scoring A grade shall be given continuity of service in the next session also and will be kept on the top in the order of teachers selected for his/her respective department.
6. A teacher scoring B grade shall be given continuity of service in the next session also and will be kept after the A grade teachers in the order of teachers selected for his/her respective department.
7. A teacher scoring C grade shall be given continuity of service in the next session but will be kept in the waiting list of the teachers selected for his/her respective department.
8. Teachers scoring D grade shall not be given continuity of service.
9. All appointments shall subject to the number of posts sanctioned for the year.
