

The festival dedicated to daughters was celebrated with pomp in the College

05.08.2023

Lyallpur Khalsa College celebrated the festival 'Teej', dedicated to girls today. Folk songs, gidha, group dance and solo dance etc. were performed by the students. Principal Prof. Jasreen Kaur participated in this program as the chief guest who said that the college's celebration of the festival dedicated to daughters was a sign of respect for women and it was certainly a commendable step today and added that Punjabi culture is very rich. Presenting the cultural program Ritka Dhillon, a student of the Department of Music, gave a presentation of folk song Mirza. While Sandeep and Rekha Rani of the non-teaching staff performed dance. Similarly, group dance and folk dance Giddha were presented by the college students. On this occasion, the college campus was decorated with Punjabi phulkaris and dupattas and stalls of kheer, malpude, pakodas and henna, Churriyan etc. were also set up. During the program, the swing in multi color was the center of attraction.

Green Diwali Celebrations

11.11.2023

Green Diwali was celebrated by Physiotherapy department of the college in collaboration with NSS Unit. On this occasion Rangoli Competition on the theme was held among 12 teams.

Lohri Celebration at Lyallpur Khalsa College

13.01.2024

The cultural festival of Lohri was celebrated with enthusiasm and joy at Lyallpur Khalsa College Jalandhar today. Speaking on the occasion, Principal Dr. Jaspal Singh expressed his best wishes to everyone and hoped for more accomplishments for the institution and its faculty and students. He also talked about the relevance of the festival in rich Punjabi cultural heritage and stressed upon making the young generation aware of it. On this occasion lohri bonfire was lit and a cultural presentation of Punjabi folk dance and bolis was given by the students.

Gurupurab Celebrations at Lyallpur Khalsa College

02.02.2024

Gurupurab of Sri Guru Gobind Singh was celebrated in the college in which staff students, Principal and the members of the governing council attended the recitation of the holy Gurbani by Ragi Jatha. Guru ka langar was served to all.

Blood Donation Camp

22.03.2024

Blood Donation Camp was organized in the college by the NSS unit in collaboration with the Red Ribbon Club. Students and teachers donated blood and 35 units blood was collected.

Shaheedi Diwas of Sri Guru Arjan Dev ji Celebrated in Lyallpur Khalsa College

12.06.2024

The martyrdom day of Sri Guru Arjan Dev Ji was observed with reverence in Lyallpur Khalsa College Jalandhar today where Bhog of the Sehaj Path in the college Gurudwara Sahib was held. In continuation with the tradition, 'Chabeel' was served to one and all. The occasion was duly participated in by President Governing Council, Sardarni Balbir Kaur, Principal Dr. Jaspal Singh and the staff and students of the college. Principal Dr. Jaspal Singh reiterated the commitment of Lyallpur Khalsa College to the service of humanity and said that following the Sikh ideal of sewa, the college would continue to make substantial efforts to serve the society.